Rachel Thomas

GRADUATE OF ASSUMPTION BVM IN WEST GROVE
AND CURRENTLY ATTENDING PADUA ACADEMY

I wanted to thank you for teaching me during your HSPT prep course. With your guidance, I was awarded two academic scholarships! Your course helped me improve my scores on the HSPT. Your course not only teaches HSPT material, but also cultivates problem solving skills that have helped me in school. I am looking forward to taking another one of your courses. Thank you!

Carly Andrews | GWYNEDD MERCY ACADEMY

Carly is a freshman at Penn State University, Main Campus, majoring in Biology in the Physician Assistant's track in the College of Health and Human Development. She worked 2 jobs over the summer in Sea Isle and took 2 college courses; so she made some money, enjoyed the beach, and started college early. She had a great senior year of high school, academically and athletically, as she was a member of the soccer, basketball and softball teams, including an all-league and defensive player of the year selection for softball. Carly will be playing softball at Penn State. Charcoal Art Retreat

JOURNEY OF EMERGENCE

AN ADVENT EXPERIENCE TO REMEMBER

"My son and I attended Dr. Pace's Art Retreat. It was a wonderful experience for both of us. The retreat was so spiritual and relaxing that we felt renewed afterwards. We learned so much about ourselves during the experience. Expressing ourselves through art gave us wonderful insights into our feelings.

Dr. Pace's book is very thought provoking and a wonderful read. I would like to give a special thank you to Dr. Pace for her unending patience and wonderful guidance throughout the retreat. We thoroughly enjoyed the retreat and would do it again."

"During our time in quarantine, I connected with Dr. Pace to see if my daughters could join me in her art retreat. I'm so thankful she said yes, as it was a beautiful time to spend with my daughters in reflection through art. We enjoyed learning some different mediums - pastels, charcoal, watercolor - and it was wonderful to see how unique each of our pieces developed. I encourage you to make the time to join Dr. Pace for this special retreat."

Art Retreat Reviews

"Since 2013, my three children have taken their HSPT or SAT test preparation classes with Dr. Pace. To say that I have been pleased with the results would be an understatement. It goes without saying that the academic preparation is rigorous and thorough, but I was most impressed by, and grateful for, the impact on their confidence in approaching the tests. My youngest daughter who suffered from test anxiety said how much more prepared and calm she felt! It's what you want to hear as a parent! In November 2018 I had the opportunity to attend one of Dr. Pace's art retreats. I am not an artist and had never done anything like it, but the word 'retreat' was in there and my spirit felt like it needed a pause from my hectic daily life. I was excited to participate. To say that it was a transformative experience would be another understatement. Apart from the deep sense of peace I felt throughout the session, I unexpectedly came away with a piece of art that would form the centerpiece of the capstone for my Master of Liberal Arts degree from Penn this year. It's been three years and that retreat is still bearing fruit for me. I would encourage anyone who has the opportunity to take it!"

*"I feel very blessed to have been led to Pat Pace's art retreats, attending once in person at the Jesuit Center in Wernersville and more recently online via Zoom. Each experience was filled with depth, wonder and awe, offering a place for creativity and spirituality to meet. The retreats are based on Pat's book Coloring Without Lines: Art of the New Covenant and the amazing art process she discovered on her spiritual journey. Pat is a gifted retreat leader and generously shares this process in a safe, welcoming environment. No art experience is necessary, only a desire to enter into a time of quiet discovery. The images that emerged for me were remarkable, and the messages they conveyed have been healing. Pat's art retreats offer a beautiful and intriguing way to connect with the Divine."*
