OPENING NOTE FROM DR. PACE

Many of you know that I had surgery in early 2016 to repair a broken patella. My experience in physical therapy has reinforced in me the importance of having sufficient confidence to meet each of the challenges that will undoubtedly arise throughout life. As a result, I realize more than ever the vital role my confidence-building approach to learning and test prep plays in helping students meet the challenges presented by standardized tests. Because my approach addresses the whole student—body, mind, emotions, and spirit—it motivates students to reach their personal best.

SOME remarkable accomplishments OF DR. PACE'S STUDENTS OVER THE YEARS

Perfect SAT Score

Second Highest MCAT Score in the United States

Post Doctorate at Oxford University

Accepted into Every Ivy League University

Highest PSAT Score in the Philadelphia Archdiocese

650 Point Increase on the SAT

I am honored to have worked with ALL of the fine young people I have taught. Each of them has brought so much goodness, joy, and meaning into my life! My ongoing prayer for my students is that they use their talents to help make this world a better place.

*With gratitude,
Dr. Pace*

NEUMANN SCHOLARSHIP WINNER: GAVIN WOODWARD

Mr. Derek Woodward and Gavin

Gavin Woodward | St. Eugene Elementary School

Gavin Woodward is the first at his school to receive a

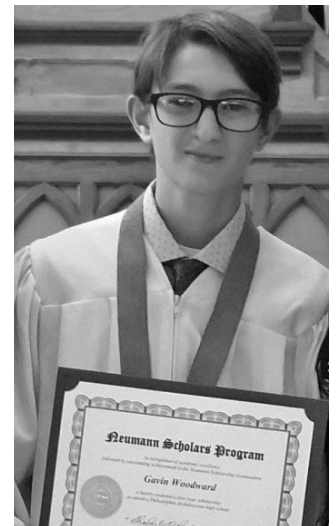

FULL NEUMANN SCHOLARSHIP!

He will attend Bonner and Prendie High School with a 4 year full scholarship.

Mr. Woodward and Gavin attended the "Slaying the Dragons of Standardized Tests" program.

"The information learned and shared in this class is a helpful reinforcement of parenting values and allows the child to hear these lessons from someone other than a parent. This method allows the lessons to be more willingly accepted by the student."

Derek Woodward, Gavin's father.
